ADDITIONAL NOTES FOR THE ISBN REQUEST FORM

1. Printed books such as: children's book, novels and other general type books.
2. Where individual articles are made available separately by a publisher, they qualify as monographic publications and shall be assigned an ISBN. This does not apply in the case of offprint copies that are the author(s) of the article for their own distribution purposes.
3. Where a publication is available electronically (e.g., an e-book app, CD-ROM, or publication available on the internet, it will qualify for an ISBN provided that it contains text and is made available to the public, and that there is no intention for the publication to be a continuing resource. (Such publications may also include pictures and sounds)
4. Such as machine-readable tapes, audiocassettes, diskettes, CD's or CD-ROMs.
5. For download and streaming.
6. Independent Monographic Publications which comprise two or more different types of media, or different forms of the same medium, e.g. a box with diskettes, a CD-ROM and a book.
